Paralyzed Desert Storm Veteran and World Class Disabled Golfer Showcases Skills at Haggin Oaks Golf Complex

WHAT: Patrick MacDonald, a disabled veteran from Desert Storm will appear at Haggin Oaks Golf Complex to share his story, showcase his skills and share golf tips with the participants in the Disabled Sports adaptive golf program.

After sustaining a spinal cord injury while patrolling in Korea during Desert Storm in 1991, Patrick turned tragedy into triumph when he taught himself the game of golf and became one of the worlds best sit down golfers.

He is currently the No. 1-ranked wheelchair golfer in the country, is a member of the Long Drivers of America, and holds the world record among wheelchair golfers with a 332-yard drive.

Join us to hear his story and watch him showcase his skills at Sacramento's only adaptive golf instruction program for people with physical disabilities.

WHEN: Saturday, July 14, 2007 from 2:00 – 3:30 PM

WHERE: Haggin Oaks Golf Complex- back side of driving range
3645 Fulton Ave
Sacramento, CA 95821
